

Jubilee Class 0 Gauge Fine scale Museum Quality Model

No. 45689 4-6-0

Manufactured by Lee Marsh Model Co and produced in South Korea, Jubilee "AJAX" is a museum quality model painted in BR lined green, with a British Railways Lion Crest on the tender. Fitted with a DCC sound decoder.

A total of 191 Jubilee Class locomotives were built at the Crewe Works. No. 45689 entered service in February 1936 and withdrawn in December 1964, with a service life of 28 years and a recorded mileage of 1,335,119. Designed by William Stanier the Jubilee Class was built for intermediate main line passenger work. Classification 5XP. Locomotive weight 79.55 tons and the tender 54.65 tons. Driving wheels 6ft 9in with a boiler pressure of 225. It had three cylinders of 17in x 26in and Walschaerts valve gear. The tractive effort was 26,610 lbf.